

70th Intelligence Wing

HQ ACC Briefing Rules of Engagement

Rank Last Name
Office Symbol
Briefing Date

This Briefing is:
UNCLASSIFIED

Overview

- CC Guidance
- Presentation Basics
- Slide Building
- Adding Graphics
- Adding Emphasis

CC Guidance

- Normal large bullet font is 24 Arial, minimum is 20 Arial
 - This slide is at the minimum
- Goal is professional, stand alone, standardized briefings
 - Don't leave audience hunting for important information
 - Don't obscure information with too much low-value data
 - Don't obscure meaning by being too abbreviated
- Follow style and color templates
 - If you must deviate, avoid pastels except to contrast bold primary colors
- Animations/Build effects can enhance a presentation
 - Don't use them if they are not to the point or distract
- Use clearly visible classification markings when appropriate

Presentation Basics

- Analyze your purpose and audience
 - Don't re-use presentation if inappropriate
- Brevity is the soul of wit
 - 15 “body” slides max for COMACC presentations
 - Director of Staff or CCX may approve additional slides
- Presentation should “stand alone” for a person familiar with the topic
 - Briefer adds depth, amplification, examples
 - Briefer neither reads nor interprets the slides for the audience

Presentation Basics - Continued

- Provide an overview of your presentation
 - Ensure slide titles and briefing flow follow your overview
- Different computers, projectors, screens provide different images
 - Test run your presentation on the target system
 - ACC/CCAV will assist with COMACC Conf Room
- If you need to point, use a laser pointer
 - Ensure the “dot” is large enough to be seen by all
 - Don’t shake when pointing the laser
- No “Go-Bys” on title slide
 - Put name as it appears on global email list

Slide Building

- Each slide should stand-alone
 - Bullets are more than memory joggers for the briefer
 - If the slide were alone, without notes, someone familiar with the topic should be able to explain it
 - Do not turn bullets into an encyclopedia
- Use indentation to add support to main topic
 - Additional bullets amplify, clarify, and enumerate
 - Do not use more than 3 levels of indentation
- No “filler” quotes
 - Quotes must directly relate to the subject

Adding Graphics - Pictures

- Use Pictures to explain or amplify
- Do not use pictures just because
 - You can
 - They are nifty
- Pictures need to add to, and agree with, text
 - Don't talk about F-15s at OSW but show F-15s at Langley
- Frame pictures in yellow

Adding Graphics - Charts

- Use where appropriate
 - Avoid 3D chart objects-
can be hard to read
- Use dark, primary colors
 - Avoid yellows and pastels
- Use white labels, lines, font
- Include titles and legend
- Charts may occupy entire slide

Adding Graphics - Tables

- Use tables as necessary
- Color filled heading row/ column can add clarity
 - Colors not required
- Ensure table entries can be read from entire room
- Tables may occupy entire slide

Sample Table

	Headin g	Headin g	Headin g
1 FW
33 FW
57 WG
366 WG

Adding Graphics - Do's and Don'ts

DO

- Use pictures to enhance
 - Directly support the text/thought
- Use professional, clear imagery
- Use strong colors
 - Red, Green, Yellow, etc
- Use 3-D or rich color "new" AF Symbol

DON'T

- Use pictures just because you can
- Use "cheesy" or "hobby-shop" images
- Use pastels such as lime green, pale yellows
- Use cartoons/clip art
 - Unless absolutely required

When using side-by-side columns,
make bullet-by-bullet comparison

Adding Emphasis - Text

- Use underline or italics for emphasis
 - Do not use all capitals, they are for acronyms
- May use color but keep common usage in mind
 - Red connotes sub-standard or warning
 - Blue connotes outstanding or superlative
- If you emphasize, be consistent
 - Use underline or italics, don't mix and match
 - Emphasize either verbs or nouns, not both

Adding Emphasis - Banners

- Banners are reserved for the most important concepts of the entire presentation
 - Do not over use

Most important point

Summary

- Presentations for COMACC
 - Clear, concise, internally standardized
 - Title, overview, summary, questions, + 15 “body” slides max
 - Stand-alone without being verbose
 - Use professional graphics to enhance message
 - Color scheme must present well in COMACC’s Conference Room

QUESTIONS

- Contact ACC/CS
 - Email “acc/cs correspondence”
 - Template questions/guidance
 - Email “acc/csav”
 - Dry run presentation in COMACC Conference Room

